

Roketsan Featured its Missile Systems in Bahrain Air Show 2014

Roketsan participated at the Bahrain International Air Show between 16 and 18 January 2014 at Bahrain. During the fair's three days, Roketsan officials held talks with top level decision-makers that are among the target countries in the defence industry and provided information on the products and capabilities of Roketsan. During the exhibition, Roketsan's stand received, among others, the Bahrain Chief of Staff, the Bahrain Naval Forces Commander, Bahrain Air Force Commander and other top level military delegations.

© Roketsan

Roketsan featured The Long-Range Anti-Tank Missile Mızrak-U on Atak Helicopter

As the only participant in the fair in the area of rockets and missiles, Roketsan exhibited its latest technology products and its stand. The Long-Range Anti-Tank Missile Mızrak-U with a maximum 8 km and a minimum 500 m range, that can undertake duties day and night under all weather conditions and that was integrated to the National Attack Helicopter ATAK as well as the 2.75" Laser Guided CIRIT missile that has the feature of being Turkey's first national missile was the centre of attention by participants and visitors alike at the fair.

During the Air Show the Medium-

© Roketsan

Range Anti-Tank Missile Mızrak-O, the SOM, the Mini Munitions and Low and Medium-Altitude Air Defence Missiles we also exhibited at Roketsan's stand.